Amarillo Sod Poodles Manager Phillip Wellman

Phillip Wellman returns for his fourth season in the Padres organization managing their Double-A affiliate. The 2019 season is his 31st as a coach and 20th as a minor league manager as he leads the inaugural Amarillo Sod Poodles squad. The 2017 Texas League Manager of the Year piloted the 2018 Missions to a 71-67 record (.514), clinching their second consecutive playoff bout and leading the squad to their first Championship series appearance since taking the league title in 2013. In 2017, while with San Antonio, he eclipsed his 1,000th win as a minor league manager in April, finishing the 2017 campaign with 1,073 career wins. In 19 total seasons as a manager, Wellman is 1144-1215.

Did You Know?....that on September 27, 1963 the Houston Colt 45's started an all rookie line up in the field against the New York Mets? The line up was: Brock Davis, LF; Jimmy Wynn, CF; Aaron Pointer, RF; Rusty Staub, 1B; Joe Morgan, 2B; Glenn Vaughn, 3B; Sonny Jackson, SS; and Jerry Grote, C. None of the players were older than 22 years of age, while five of the nine players were under 20. Joe Morgan had just turned 20 eight days prior to the historic game. The Colts starting pitcher was Jay Dahl, an 18-year old who would be making his only big league appearance in the 10-3 Houston loss. Everyone in the line up except Dahl and Staub played in San Antonio with the Bullets. Grote and Wynn played for San Antonio only in 1963. Jackson, Morgan, and Vaughn were on the 1964 Texas League Champion Bullets squad. Aaron Pointer was with both teams while Brock Davis spent 1963, 1964 and 1969 with San Antonio. While many of the players had fine seasons with San Antonio, Jimmy Wynn's stats for 1963 might be the most amazing. In only 78 Texas League games, the "Toy Cannon" had 15 doubles, 11 triples, and 16 home runs.

Arkansas Travelers Manager Mitch Canham Manager Mitch Canham, 34, a former Texas League player takes over as the Travs field boss after leading Class-A Modesto the past two summers. In 2017, Modesto won the California League Championship and Canham was named the league's Manager of the Year. Canham's first year as a manager in 2016, he led Class-A Clinton to 86 wins and into the Midwest League Playoffs. Across three seasons as a skipper he has compiled a 222-198 record, good for a .529 winning percentage with two playoff appearances and one league title.

Did You Know?....that according to past history, if you want to see a nine-inning no-hitter in the Texas League, you should reserve a ticket somewhere in the circuit for Tuesday, August 11? Based on an analysis of the league's 111 nine inning-plus no-hitters, that date represents the next time all the star-crossed odds and chances align again. Tuesday is the most common day of the week (20 nohitters), August the most common month (30), and the 11th is the most common date (9). In fact, August 11 represents the specific date on which five Texas League no-hitters have been tossed. Luis Arroyo of the Houston Buffs no-hit Dallas 3-0 on August 11, 1954, the last time a nine-inning no-hitter occurred on that date. The other four were Joe Berry, Tulsa (1-0 vs Oklahoma City, 1942); Buck Harris, San Antonio (6-0 vs. Dallas, 1907); Rudy Schmenck, Fort Worth (13-0 vs Dallas, 1904); and H. Conover, Dallas (8-0 vs Ft. Worth, 1903). The most recent Texas League no-hitter of nine or more innings was a perfect game thrown by a trio of Frisco hurlers, A. J. Murray, Steve Karsay and Scott Feldman, on July 28, 2005, when they beat Corpus Christi 3-0. Happily, in 2013 August 11 falls on a Sunday with a full schedule of games.

Omar Lopez

Corpus Christi Hooks Manager

Reigning Texas League Manager of the Year Omar Lopez will lead the Corpus Christi Hooks in 2019. Last year marked Lopez's first season at the helm of the Hooks. He guided Corpus Christi to a Double-A best 82-56 record as the club claimed both the first and second half titles in the Texas League South. The Hooks' .594 winning percentage ranked as the third-best mark in team history. Lopez, the seventh field chief in the 15-year history of the Hooks, enters his 21st campaign in the Houston organization, and his 12th as a minor-league skipper.

Did You Know?... that former Texas League pitcher Lloyd Brown was the only Major League pitcher to give up two of Lou Gehrig's record 23 career grand slams? Brown, a native of Beeville, Texas, who pitched for Wichita Falls in 1924 and 1925, went on to pitch 12 years in the major leagues, winning a total of 91 games for six different clubs. Nicknamed "Gimpy", Brown's best seasons came in 1930-32 when he won 16, 15, and 15 games for the Washington Senators managed by the great Walter Johnson.

Did You Know?.... that in 1912 Dallas Giants right-handed throwing 1B Cy Forsythe had been a left handed pitcher until his arm gave out? The story may never have come to light had infielder "Chick" Edmiston not come to the Texas League to play for Beaumont. Forsythe and Edmiston had been teammates in Illinois some years earlier where it was reported that Forsythe was one of the best in the league. One day, an accident occurred and Forsythe threw his arm out of commission. He was so disabled that his left arm was useless for throwing again. Forsythe began throwing with his right arm, believing that he could return to the mound as a right-hander. It was a year before he built up his right arm well enough to return to baseball. He joined Dallas in 1911 hitting .317 in 147 games. He followed that with another solid season in 1912, hitting .320 and 47 extra-base hits in 142 games. The left-handed swinger hit over .300 his first six seasons as a position player (1909-'14) despite having to wear a brace on his injured left shoulder.

Midland RockHounds Manager Scott Steinmann

Scott Steinmann returns for his second season with the Rock-Hounds. He joined the A's organization after spending 17 seasons as a coach and manager in the Seattle Mariners' farm system. His tenure with Seattle included nine managerial seasons, from the Rookie level up to Double-A, where he led the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx (Jackson, Tennessee) to a first half division pennant in the Southern League in 2008.

The 45-year-old Ohio native (he was born in Cincinnati) played college baseball at Miami University (Oxford, OH) and was signed by the Seattle Mariners as a non-drafted free agent on August 3, 1995.

Did You Know?...that William S. "Alec" Alexander established the Texas League record of having the longest span of time between first and last TL appearances at 34 seasons (1895-1929)? In a somewhat related matter, pitcher Homer Price Rainey, who left after one TL season to follow a path that would lead him to become the President of the University of Texas and a candidate for governor, holds the loop record for most seasons between two Texas League appearances with twenty years. The former Austin College star formally hung up his spikes after the 1919 season, but was asked, as a publicity stunt, to pitch in a Texas League game again in 1939. Other lengthy absences between TL games include Jim Murray with 17 years between (1899-1916), Ducky Medwick with 16 years (1932-1948), and 15 years each for Eddie Dyer (1923-1938) and Harry Ables (1910-1925, also a publicity stunt).

NW Arkansas Naturals Manager Darryl Kennedy

Kennedy, takes the reins of the Northwest Arkansas Naturals - becoming just the fourth field manager in franchise history - after serving as the manager for the Wilmington Blue Rocks (Advanced-A) in 2018. He has been a mainstay in the Royals organization serving in a managerial role within the farm system since the 2007 season. He previously managed with Surprise (2010-2013, 2015-2017) along with stints in Wilmington (2008, 2014, and 2018), Burlington (2007) and Idaho Falls (2009).

Did You Know?... that future Texas League hurler Orville Armbrust's only major league victory, a 5-3 Washington win over New York, came on the day that Babe Ruth played his final game in Yankee pinstripes? Armbrust, who would never appear in another major league game, drifted to the Texas League where he toiled in 1936-38, posting a 17-28 record for three league clubs. In three games for the Senators in 1934, Armbrust had a 2.13 ERA and pitched 12.2 innings issuing only 10 hits and three walks.

Did You Know?...that in the modern history of the Texas League there have been eight men who have been 20-game winners in both the Texas League and the Major Leagues? The first was little Dickey Kerr who was 21-10 for Ft. Worth in 1915, then posting a 21-9 record for the Chicago White Sox in 1920. Kerr joined the ChiSox in 1919 and was a valuable contributor on the eventual American League championship club with a 13-7 record. The diminutive left-handed was one of the honest men playing in the tainted 1919 World Series, winning both his starts, including a 3-0 shutout in game three. The next Texas Leaguer to turn the feat was Dizzy Dean who posted a fantastic 26-10 mark for Houston in 1931, then went on to win twenty or more games for the St. Louis Cardinals four times. Howie Pollet of the Houston Buffs is the only one of the eight to have had two 20-win seasons in the TL and two or more 20-win seasons in the "big". After going 20-7 in 1940 and 20-3 in 1941, the Cardinal lefty led the National League in wins in 1946 with a 21-10 mark, then posted 20-9 mark for the Card's in 1949.

Tulsa Drillers Manager

Scott Hennessey

The 2019 season will be Hennessey's third in Tulsa. He made his managerial debut with the Drillers in July of 2017 and led the team to a second-half title and eventually to a spot in the Texas League Championship Series where they lost a hard-fought five-game series to Midland.Last year marked Hennessey's first full season with the club, and he led the Drillers to a 74-65 regular season record and another second-half title. The Drillers again advanced to the Texas League Championship Series where they swept San Antonio in three straight games to claim the franchise's first league title in two decades.

Athletic Trainer Kalie Swain Performance Coach Shaun Alexander Coach Petie Montero

Did You Know?...that although he returned to the Texas League for only a short period of time, Dizzy Dean of Tulsa was selected as the starting pitcher in the 1940 Texas League All-Star Game by North Manager Rogers Hornsby? Dean pitched only one inning, yielding one hit while collecting a strikeout. "Ol' Diz" became the first player to appear in both the Major League All-Star Game (1934-37 with the National League) and the Texas League All-Star Game. Beaumont catcher Birdie Tebbetts was the first TL All-Star to "graduate" from TL All-Star to Major League All-Star, playing in the inaugural Texas League game in 1936, then the 1942 game with the American League squad. Rogers Hornsby coached the American League All-Star team of 1935 before managing the North All-Stars in the TL game of 1940, but his Southern counterpart in 1940, Eddie Dyer, became the first man to manage both the Texas League and the Major League All-Star teams when he piloted the 1947 National League stars.

COMMONLY REFERRED TO RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1. Texas League Roster Limits: Texas League clubs may carry 25 active players for the entire championship season and post-season playoffs.
- 2. Suspended Game Rule: The Texas League uses the Major League suspended game rule 4.12, as printed in the Major League Rule Book.
- 3. Curfew: The Texas League has no official curfew. Clubs must honor any local curfew or special time limit regulations.
- 4. Playoff Rosters: Any player shall be eligible to participate in post-season play as long as he is assigned to a participating club in accordance with the rules of the Texas League and Minor League Baseball prior to the start of the first game of post-season play. Roster limits in the post season will be 25. Clubs may substitute injured or disabled players on a position by position basis at any time during any series.

5. Playoff Format: Should one team win both half seasons, they will play the team in their division with the next best overall record over the whole season. In this case the two half winner will host game 1, 2, and if necessary, game 5.

TEXAS LEAGUE HALL OF FAME BIOGRAPHIES

Harry Ables - Pitcher/Executive

Though he never won 20 games in any one of his five full seasons in the Texas League, Harry Ables still accomplished feats that more than 100 years later, have never been equaled in league play. While completing a 80-52 record with Dallas and San Antonio from 1905 through 1910, Ables pitched a number of legendary games, led by his 10 consecutive strikeouts that opened a 4-2 win over Dallas in 1910. Among his other accomplishments in 1910: a 14-inning, 19-strikeout win in which he did not allow a hit until the 10th inning and a seven-inning, 1-0 no-hitter over Waco on September 4. During his rookie season, Ables pitched a pair of double headers with results that test credulity. On July 4, 1905, pitching for Dallas, he split a doubleheader versus Waco, winning the opener 3-0 and losing a one-hitter, 1-0 in the second contest, allowing just five total hits in the two games. On July 30, Ables swept a double header from Fort Worth, winning both, 6-0 and 8-0, tossing a one-hitter in the opener and a four hitter in the second game, again, allowing just five hits over 18 shutout innings. Following his playing career, Ables returned to the San Antonio club as their president from 1925 to 1928. As a promotional stunt in both 1925 and 1926, Ables took the mound for his club, losing in '25, but pitching five innings, while winning the next year, allowing just one hit in four innings at the age of 42.

Roy Acuff - Broadcaster

The dean of Texas League broadcasters, Acuff is the longest serving play-by-play man in the long history of the league, with 26 seasons behind the microphone, 25 consecutive in San Antonio. A native of Mineral Wells, Texas, Acuff began his Texas League career with the league champion Victoria Toros in 1974 during their lone season in the league. He returned to the loop in 1988, joining San Antonio after the club was purchased by Dave Elmore. Over his long career in the league, Acuff has called the action for more than 3,000 games, including four Texas League All-Star games and seven league-championship series, five of which were won by San Antonio.

Roberto Alomar - Player

Alomar, a speedy, good hitting and a smooth fielding infielder who helped lead Wichita to a championship in their first season in the league. Playing both second base and shortstop, Alomar led all shortstops with 167 put outs in 113 games at that position. Alomar went on to have a long career in the Major Leagues, being elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2011.

Jake Atz - Manager

The manager with most seasons (21) and wins (1,566) in league history. He guided the Fort Worth Panthers for 16 consecutive seasons (13 complete). During that period Fort Worth had their record breaking run of pennants and first place finishes from 1919 through 1925. He led the Panthers to 109 victories in both 1922 and 1924. His clubs won Dixie Series championships in five of the six in which they competed. Atz also led four other TL, clubs, Dallas in 1930, Shreveport in 1931, Tulsa in 1934 and Galveston in 1936.

Lee Ballanfant - Umpire

After a leg injury shortened a promising playing career, Lee Balanfant turned to umpiring, joining the Texas League staff in 1929. The Waco native spent seven seasons in the loop, then went directly to the National League in 1936. His 22-year Major League career lasted until 1958 and included a span of 11 ½ years during which Ballenfant did not miss an inning. Only 5' 8", Ballanfant used his quickness to develop a reputation for always being in the proper position to make a call.

Sis Bateman - Pitcher/Player

Bateman played just a single year in the Texas League, but it may be one of the most notable seasons in league annals. Playing the outfield when not pitching for Paris and Waco in 1903, Bateman led the league in hitting, home runs, triples and total hits. On the mound he was 16-16, completing 33 of 34 starts. In May, he became the second player in league history to hit four home runs in a single game. In July he tossed a 7-0 no-hitter versus Fort Worth. These were truly amazing accomplishments for player in a single season.

Carroll Beringer - Pitcher

Beringer was a jack-of-all-trades workhorse, over nine seasons for Fort Worth and Victoria between 1949 and 1959. He performed consistently well, both in relief and as a starter, saving his best for his final league season when went 19-5, with 18 complete games for Victoria in 1959, earning the league's Pitcher of the Year Award. Beringer, who settled in Fort Worth, is third, all-time, in the Texas League in career winning percentage (94-50, .635) and 10th in career ERA (2.97).

John Bischoff - Player

Bischoff was likely the finest hitting catcher in the early years of the Texas League. In eight complete seasons in the league, 1921-24 and 1927-30, Bischoff had a career batting average .301, amassing 789 hits in 2618 at-bats. The 5' 7", 140 pound native of Edwardsville, Illinois, possessed uncommon speed for a catcher, particularly in his earlier seasons in the loop, collecting 19 triples and 46 stolen bases in his first three seasons while at Wichita Falls. He also had a keen eye at the plate, walking more times than he struck out in his TL career. A fine defensive backstop, Bischoff led the league in fielding percentage in 1924 while with the league champion Fort Worth Panthers and in total chances in 1922 with Wichita Falls. In addition to being a member of the 1924 champiFew players in the history of the Texas League have had greater success than Ge-

oGeorge Blackerby - Player

George Blackerby achieved over the first three years of his five year career in the loop. Playing for a mediocre Waco club from 1927 through 1929, his three full seasons in the league, Blackerby hit .364, .368 and .365, winning the league batting title and leading in slugging percentage in 1928. However, 1929 may have been the outfield's best season when he led the league in runs scored, home runs, total bases and extra base hits. Over his five seasons in the Texas League, Blackerby had a career batting average of .348, amassing 694 hits, of which 221 went for extra bases, in 554 career games. The Oklahoma native also had a keen eye at the plate, striking out just 149 times in over 2,200 plate appearances while, walking 222 times.onship Fort Worth club, Bischoff was with the 1929 pennant winning Dallas Steers.

Keith Bodie - Manager

A scrappy, competitive third baseman/outfielder in three seasons at Jackson in the late 1970's, Bodie returned to the league after a 21 year absence, developing into one of the most successful managers in Texas League history, first with Wichita from 2000 through 2003, then nine years later with Corpus Christi for three seasons beginning in 2012. In seven league seasons, Bodie led his clubs to Texas League post-season play in all but his final year at Corpus Christi, becoming the first manager in league history to lead a team into post-season play in his first six years managing in the loop. Additionally, in the long history of the league, only Jake Atz (7) and Al Vincent (8) led TL teams into the playoffs more often than did Bodie. With a Texas League career record of 537-436, the native New Yorker amassed a winning percentage of .552, eighth best in league history. In addition, he is ninth, all-time, with 537 wins and 10th in total games managed with 973.

Joe Bonowitz - Player

He played six complete years in the Texas League, compiling a career batting average of .313, seventh highest in league history. He was one of the greatest defensive outfielders in league history, leading his position in fielding percentage in five consecutive seasons, centerfield in 1926 and left field, 1927-30. He also led center fielders in chances in 1925 and left fielders in 1929 and 1930. Bonowitz was also one of the toughest men to strike out in the league, whiffing just 154 times in 3,401 at-bats in six seasons. He was a 10-year league veteran with four clubs (Beaumont 1946-47; Tulsa 1947-51; Dallas 1951; Oklahoma City 1952-55). He led the league in RBI's four times, while driving in 100 or more runs in six of his seven full seasons in the loop. He led the league in homers once, hitting 20 or more in a season five times.

Henry "Zeke" Bonura - Player

Bonura had two outstanding seasons for Dallas, hitting a combined .340 with 221 RBI, 242 runs scored and 203 walks. Bonura was also an outstanding fielder, leading first baseman in fielding both years and in total chances in 1933.

Ike Boone - Player

In 1923, Boone battered Texas League pitching, leading the league in hitting (.402), runs (134), hits (241), doubles (53 and RBI's (135). That year, he became the only modern TL player to hit over .400. He also established a league record with a 35 game consecutive hitting streak.

Bobby Bragan - Executive/Player/Manager

As player/manager of Fort Worth from 1948-52, he guided Fort Worth to the Dixie Series in 1948, won 100 games in 1949 and guided the Cats to five consecutive winning seasons. One of the top defensive catchers in the history of the league, Bragan still holds the record for fewest stolen bases allowed in a season (6) and shares the record for fewest passed balls in a season (0). After a career as a Major League manager, he returned to the league as President. He resigned to become the President of the Minor Leagues.

Mark Brouhard - Player

Another in the long line of sluggers to have played in El Paso, Brouhard tore through the Texas League in 1979, leading the loop in hits, home runs, RBI's, total bases and slugging percentage. Not surprisingly, for his efforts, the Southern California native was named the 1979 Texas League Player of the Year, as well as a league post-season all star. Brouhard made a brief stop in the league in 1987, playing for Midland while trying to return to the Major Leagues following injuries.

Willard Brown - Player

Elected to Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006. Willard "Home Run" Brown was one of the pioneering African-American players in the Texas League. Born in 1911 or 1915, according to different sources, Brown was at the end of a productive career when he arrived in the Texas League in 1953. The slugging outfielder lived up to his nickname with four solid seasons in the league, pounding 91 homers and driving in 405 runs while playing for Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Tulsa and Austin.

Dick Burnett - Executive

He owned the Dallas Eagles from 1948 to 1955. Burnett was one of the most flamboyant promoters of the post-World War II era. His Dallas Eagles drew over 54,000 to the Cotton Bowl on opening day in 1950 with an 'Old Timers Day" that featured seven present or future Hall of Famers. He also installed the first organ in a Texas League ballpark. His signing of Dave Hoskins in 1952 led to the integration of the Texas League. Under his leadership, Dallas finished in first place in 1952, 1953, and 1955.

Russ Burns - Player

He was a 10-year league veteran with four clubs (Beaumont 1946-47; Tulsa 1947-51; Dallas 1951; Oklahoma City 1952-55). He led the league in RBI's four times, while driving in 100 or more runs in six of his seven full seasons in the loop. He led the league in homers once, hitting 20 or more in a season five times.

Dick Butler - Executive

Dick Butler was the Texas League President from 1955-63, 1965 and 1969. Butler helped guide the league through the difficult era in minor league that saw a sharp decline in attendance across the country for most of the years of his tenure. Butler helped keep the league together by finding new cities for the league when the larger league locations left the departed for Triple-A or because of segregation laws. Butler was instrumental in helping push for the agreement with Major League baseball that reclassified the minor leagues in 1962 and standardized the working agreements for all minor league clubs. Butler also negotiated the three-year pact between the Texas League and the Mexican League that led to an interlocking schedule, a joint all star game and a year-end championship series for the 1959-1961 seasons. The Pan-American Association helped breath new life into both leagues, creating added fan interest in on both sides of the border. After leaving his position with the league in 1963, Butler helped bring Texas League baseball back to Fort Worth in 1964 and to Arlington in 1965, running the Dallas-Fort Worth club for a number of years. He was also named the Sporting News Double-A Executive of the Year in 1965. Butler was also named interim president of the league for brief periods in 1965 and 1969.

Earl Caldwell - Pitcher

Caldwell's Texas League career had three different segments from 1926 through 1942. A very good fielding pitcher, Caldwell became better with age, going 43-20 in his final two TL seasons at the ages of 36 and 37. A four time 20 game winner, Caldwell led the league in complete games three times and pitched a seven-inning no hitter in 1942.

Jose Cardenal - Player

Cardenal was powerful and speedy outfielder for El Paso in 1963. During his only season in the league, Cardinal became just the second Texas League player to hit 30 or more home runs, while stealing at least 30 bases. The feat had not been done since 1932 and has been done in the league just twice since.

Jay J. Clarke - Player

A fine hitter and a stellar defensive catcher, Clarke is best known for the eight home runs he hit in Corsicana's 51-3 win over Texarkana on June 15, 1902. His singular feat is the most famous and productive single game in the long history of the Texas League. While Clarke finished third in the league batting race in 1902, the 19-year-old native of Ontario, Canada led all Texas League catchers in fielding percentage with a .982 mark, committing just eight errors in 105 games, one-third the number committed by the next best catcher in the league that season. Clarke went on to a career in the Major Leagues, mostly in the American League, where Ty Cobb referred to him as one of the two best defensive catchers he ever saw.

James "Snipe" Conley - Player/Pitcher/Manager

Snipe Conley was one of the most accomplished, all-around players in Texas League history. A great fielding, right-handed spitball pitcher, Conley would regularly start games for Dallas in both the infield and outfield when he was not on the mound. During a stretch from 1920 through 1925, Conley hit .299 in nearly 900 official at-bats. On the hill, Conley led Dallas to pennants in 1917 and 1918. His season in 1917 was one of the greatest of any league hurler, leading the loop with 27 wins, as well as winning percentage and strikeouts. During that season, Conley won 19 consecutive games, a Texas League record that still stands. A terrific control pitcher, Conley led starting pitchers in fewest walks five consecutive seasons, 1920-25. In 1925, Conley was named manager of the Steers near the end of the first half, leading the club to a 52-38 mark and a second half tie with Fort Worth, losing a post-season playoff to the Panthers. The following season, Conley led the Steers to a first place finish, claiming another league championship for Dallas. Conley ranks seventh all-time among league pitchers in games (369), innings pitched (2,357) and wins (149), while he is 12th all-time in career strikeouts (959).

Dode Criss - Player/Pitcher

Criss may have been the league's best all-around player. In seven seasons in the loop (Cleburne 1906; Houston 1912-17) he had the highest batting average in the league three times (though he did not have enough at-bats to qualify for the batting title in any of those seasons), while compiling a career average of .321, accomplished entirely in the dead ball era. He was also 80-40 as a pitcher, mostly for Houston. Amazingly, Criss pitched three no-hitters (two of nine innings, one of five innings) in his career.

Dizzy Dean - Pitcher

Was 34-12 in two TL seasons at Houston, 26-10 in 1931 with 303 strikeouts. Returned to the League briefly in 1940 to Tulsa where he was 8-8, drawing huge crowds across the league. He was the league's first Player of the Year in 1931.

Dick Dietz - Player

In 1963, Dick Dietz had one of the most dominant seasons in the early years of the El Paso franchise, leading the league in hitting, with a .354 mark, 16 points higher than the next best player that season. He also led the loop with 128 runs scored and an on-base percentage of .469 that was built on the strength of 91 walks. For his efforts in 1963, Dietz was named to the Texas League post-season all star team.

Jerry Doggett - Broadcaster

Jerry Doggett, the first broadcaster selected for membership in the league's Hall of Fame, spent 13 seasons broadcasting Texas League games in Dallas in 1941 and 1942, and again from 1946 through the 1956 season. Hired by the Brooklyn Dodgers after the close of the '56 Texas League season, Doggett spent 32 years as Vin Scully's Dodgers broadcast partner, retiring after the 1987 season.

Eddie Donalds - Pitcher

One of the finest right hand pitchers of the early years in the league. In his first season in the loop he produced one of the finest seasons in league history, winning 30 while losing only four games.

Dick Dunavan - Groundskeeper

For nearly 36 seasons from 1919 to 1954, Dunavan toiled as the groundskeeper for San Antonio, building, rebuilding and looking after the playing surfaces at four different ball-parks the franchise called home during his epic tenure. During his long career in South Texas, Dunavan built over 30 fields while consulting on another 40. His glowing reputation as a premier caretaker of baseball surfaces helped attract several Major League teams to San Antonio and the local environs for spring training, including the New York Giants and Boston Bees.

Grant Dunlap - Player

A dependable hitter and a good fielding outfielder, Grant Dunlap helped lead Shreveport to the Texas League championship in 1952 when he led the league with a .333 batting average. Dunlap had missed winning the batting title the previous year by a tiny .0004 percent. For his career, Dunlap is tied for tenth all-time in the Texas League with a .309 batting average, while he also has the fourth best league career on-base percentage with a .400 mark in over 800 league contests. In his five full seasons in the league between 1948 and 1952, Dunlap increased his average each season from .302 in 1948 to .333 in 1952. He also led the league in on-base percentage in 1952 with a .434 mark, while leading all right fielders in fielding percentage in 1948.

Alex Dupree - Pitcher

Dupree was one of the finest pitchers in the early history of the Texas League. He pitched a no-hitter and a one-hitter in his fantastic 1906 season when he pitched for the first place Fort Worth club. Dupree was also a member of the pennant winning San Antonio club in 1908 after being traded to the Bronchos during that season. Dupree was the first Texas League pitcher to have three consecutive seasons of 20 or more wins. A fine fielder, he led all pitchers in fielding percentage in 1906, in addition to tying for the most wins in the league. In 1907, Dupree led the league in games pitched. Dupree finished his career in the loop in 1920 as a member of the league's staff of umpires.

Eddie Dyer - Manager

Dyer managed in the Texas League for just three seasons (1939-41), finishing first all three years, winning over 100 games in the final two. He is one of just two managers to have consecutive 100-win season in league history. Only three clubs have won as many as 100 games since Dyer did it, none surpassing his win totals in either 1940 or 1941. Dyer later managed the St. Louis Cardinals to a World Series title in 1946, becoming one of the few managers to guide a TL squad to a league title and a World Championship.

Paul Easterling - Player

One of the greatest of league hitters, Easterling was a 13-year TL veteran, playing with five clubs (Beaumont 1929-33; Tulsa 1934; Oklahoma City 1935-37; Houston 1938; Oklahoma City-Shreveport 1939; Shreveport-Dallas 1940; Dallas 1941). The Texas League career leader in games, runs, hits, extra-base hits, total bases, doubles, home runs and RBI's. Paul played on three pennant winning clubs and one Dixie Series winner.

Dennis Eckersley - Pitcher

Eckersley, one of the newest members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, was the Texas League right-handed Pitcher of the Year in 1974 when he was 14-3 for the San Antonio Brewers. That season, Eckersley led the loop in wins, winning percentage (.824), strikeouts (163), while completing 10 of his 23 starts.

Oscar "Ox" Eckhardt - Player

One of the greatest minor league hitters of all time, amassing a career batting average of .367 in over 1900 minor league contests. The left hand hitting Eckhardt won five minor league batting titles, four in succession, the first in the Texas League in 1930 when he hit .379 over 147 games. During his great 1930 campaign at Beaumont, Eckhardt also led the Texas League with 217 hits and 55 doubles, the third highest total for two-base hits in league history, and a number unsurpassed since that season. Returning to the Texas League in 1938, Eckhardt had the highest average in the league at .387, but did not have enough plate appearances in 72 games to qualify for the batting title.

Jim Elder - Broadcaster

A former minor league umpire, Jim Elder began his career as a broadcaster in 1960 with the Little Rock Travelers as a statistician and side-kick to play-by-play man Bud Campbell. When Campbell moved to another station in 1965, Elder became the voice of the Travelers working every year through the 1993 season, except in 1970, when he was the Trav's concessions manager. One of the league's longest serving broadcasters, Elder was probably the last to do road games by ticker tape recreation from a studio in Little Rock. Elder developed a range of sound effects that he used during his recreations that he continued to do well into the 1980's. Elder's radio career with the Travelers spanned 34 years, 27 of them after the club joined the Texas League in 1966.

Dave Elmore - Executive

The 2016 season was Dave Elmore's 30th as the owner of the San Antonio franchise. He purchased the club, then called the Dodgers, at the start of the 1987 season, renaming them the Missions the following year. Over the 30 seasons in the Texas League, Dave has been a stable, valuable and respected voice in league affairs, as well as on various Minor League Baseball boards and committees. Under his ownership, the San Antonio club helped develop one of the first modern parks in the Texas League, opening Nelson Wolff Municipal Stadium in 1994, a stadium that for many years was know as "the jewel of the Texas League". During his ownership, the Illinois native has put in place a stable and accomplished management team that has won numerous league and national awards, including five for the Texas League Executive of the Year, the Texas League Organization of the Year in 1994 and the Baseball America Bob Freitas Award in 1997.

Hal Epps - Player

A brilliant fielder, Hal Epps played 1,176 Texas League games in center field, almost certainly an all-time league record. A fine hitter, Epps is first in career triples in league history and 10th all-time with 977 singles. Epps is the only TL player to have consecutive seasons with 20 or more triples and the only player to lead the league in triples three times. The speedy outfielder was a member of three first place clubs (Houston 1939, 1941, 1947), including the '47 club that won the Dixie Series.

Sid Fernandez - Pitcher

Sid Fernandez is one of just three Texas League pitchers that have won the pitcher's "Triple Crown", leading the league in wins, ERA and strikeouts. The league's Pitcher of the Year in 1983 while pitching for the San Antonio Dodgers, Fernandez produced 13 wins, 209 strikeouts and an ERA of 2.82. Additionally, he is the last Texas League pitcher to strike out as many as 200 batters in a single season.

George Ferran - Pitcher

Ferran is just one of three Texas League pitchers to have won the pitcher's Triple Crown, leading the loop in wins, strikeouts and ERA. Amazingly, Pitching for Shreveport, Ferran accomplished the feat, primarily, as a relief pitcher. In 46 games, he started nine, completed three, tossed two shutouts, saved four games and finished with a 16-1 record. Having gone 4-1 for Shreveport the year before, Ferran's career record in the Texas League is 20-2.

Howie Fitzgerald - Player

Fitzgerald, who played for Wichita Falls 1924-30, Fort Worth 1931 and San Antonio 1932, hit over .300 six times, finishing his career in the League with a .308 average. He is fourth all-time in runs scored with 812 and tied for sixth place with 437 career extra-base hits.

Chet Fowler - Player/Umpire

A 14-year veteran of the Texas League, two as a player and 12 as an umpire, Fowler is one of the longest tenured arbiters in league history. A serviceable infielder with Fort Worth in 1930 and 1931, Fowler began umpiring after his playing career ended in 1933, advancing to the Texas League by 1935. Fowler remained in the league through the 1941 season, returning after World War II in 1946 for five more seasons. A respected and popular umpire, Fowler was assigned to work in four Dixie Series during his career, 1939, 1941, 1947 and 1949.

LaVel Freeman - Player

Freeman had outstanding back-to-back seasons, a rarity in modern minor league baseball for a young player. In 1987 produced one of the highest batting averages in league history. Freeman is the only player to have more than 200 hits in a single Texas League season in 50 years. He also has the highest single season batting average since 1925 when Danny Clark of San Antonio hit .399.

Jim Galloway - Player

Galloway may have been the best switch hitter in the history of the Texas League, finishing his career in the League with a .316 batting average, 112 home runs and 662 RBI's in 12 seasons, seven of which were full seasons. One of the outstanding Texas League players in the 1920's, Galloway hit over .300 in six of his seven full seasons.

J. Alvin Gardner - Executive

Serving as the top executive from 1929 until 1954, Gardner had the longest tenure as president in league history. He began his Texas League career at Wichita Falls in 1920, building clubs that won league titles in 1927 and 1929 and winning the Dixie Series in 1927. Following the 1929 season, Gardner was elected to succeed Doak Roberts as league president.

Hank Gowdy - Player

Playing first base for the pennant winning Dallas Giants in 1910, Gowdy had one of the finest seasons in the early history of the Texas League, leading the league in batting average, home runs, doubles, total bases and extra base hits, while playing 139 of the Giants' 143 games. The Ohio native would go on to have a long career in the National League, notably as the starting catcher on the 1914 Miracle Braves, who went from last place in early July to winning the National League pennant by 10 1/2 games after going 70-19 in their final 89 games. When the United States joined the fighting during World War I, Gowdy became the first major league player to enlist, receiving a commission as a Captain and seeing considerable action in France with the 166th Infantry Regiment of the Ohio National Guard, including some of the worst trench fighting in the war. He would serve again in 1943 and 1944 as a Major during World War II. Gowdy had a long coaching career after his playing days, including a brief stint back in the Texas League when he was 8-5 as the acting manager of the Oklahoma Indians from June 20 through July 2, 1950.

Hank Greenberg - Player

At Beaumont in 1932, Greenberg led the league with 123 runs and 39 home runs. He hit .290 and had 131 RBI's. He was the Texas League Player of the Year in 1932.

Ken Guettler - Player

In 1956, Guettler hit a league record 62 home runs, scored 115 runs and drove in 143 runs.

Chick Hafey - Player

At Houston in1924, Hafey hit .360 with 39 doubles, 9 home runs, 90 RBI's and a league leading 20 triples.

Bob Hards - Broadcaster

In 2016, Bob Hards joined a select and exclusive group of broadcasters that have worked in the Texas League for 25 or more seasons. Hired by the Midland club to become their play-by-play announcer in November, 1991, Hards has become a revered member of the Permian Basin community, as well as a respected and popular member of the Texas League. Hards is known for his passionate, witty, fun and focused broadcasts, his love of baseball history, particularly of the Midland club and the Texas League, and game recaps and notes that are a must read after every morning. In addition to his broadcast duties, Hards is responsible for the design for all the RockHounds publications and marketing material which consistently have the look and content of Major League products. Hards was just the fifth broadcaster elected to the league Hall of Fame.

Ellis Hardy - Manager

Hardy led Waco from 1911 through 1918, winning league championships 1914-16. He has the highest winning percentage of all Texas League managers with a .574 mark and an overall record of 594-441.

Ash Hillin - Pitcher

A good fielding pitcher, who sometimes struggled with injuries and his control, Ash Hillin had a number of brilliant seasons in the Texas League, particularly 1937 and 1938, when he was a combined 54-20, winning 31 games in Oklahoma City in the first of the two seasons. Pitching for San Antonio in 1934, Hillin won a league best 24 games, earning him the Texas League Pitcher of the Year Award. He topped that in 1937 when he was named the league's Player of the Year after going 31-10 with a league best 2.34 ERA. Hillin also pitched in a total of 62 games in '37, establishing a new league mark for appearances by a pitcher. A workhorse on the mound, Hillin completed 128 starts in his seven full seasons in the loop, while tossing more than 250 innings five times, topped by his 302 innings during his fantastic 1937 season. With a career mark of 136-123, Hillin is 10th all time in wins in the league, fourth in appearances with 410 and ninth all-time in innings pitched with 2,097.

Monty Hoppel - Executive

Hired by the Midland club mere months before the team was sold to Miles Prentice and Bob Richmond, Monty Hoppel arrived in the Permian Basin in September on 1989 and has been there ever since. The 2016 season represents the 28th he has spent guiding the fortunes of West Texas club, in one of the smallest markets in Double A baseball. Easy going and driven, Hoppel and his staff have built a record of accomplishment that helped prompt the city of Midland to build a modern facility for the club in 2002. The new ballpark has allowed the team draw each season more fans to their games than there are people in the combined Midland and Odessa markets. For his efforts, the Montana native has become one of the most decorated executives in league history, earning five league Executive of the Year Awards and the Baseball America Minor League Executive of the Year award four times under his leadership, as well as the Bob Freitas Award from Baseball America in 1995.

Tyrone Horne - Player

Horne had one outstanding season in the Texas League during which he led the league in home runs and RBI's. His RBI total of 139 was the highest in the league since 1956. Horne also had one historic game in 1998, hitting a home run cycle in a July contest at San Antonio. It was the first time a batter had accomplished the feat of hitting a solo, two-run, three-run and grand slam homers in the same game in professional baseball history. For his accomplishments during the 1998 season, Horne was selected the Texas League Player of the Year.

Dave Hoskins - Player

He was the first African-American player to play in the Texas League. In 1952 he led the league with 22 wins, had a 2.12. ERA, an over all record of 22-10 and a league leading 280 innings pitched. After spending time in the Major Leagues, he returned to Dallas in 1958 going 17-8.

Mark Howie - Player

Mark Howie was a career .330 hitter in three Texas League seasons. However, it was Howie's final season in the league, in 1991, during which he truly excelled. Playing in 130 games that year, the right-hand hitter produced a league-leading .364 batting average, with 123 RBI, driving in runs at a rate of nearly one a game. In addition to leading the league in batting average in 1991 with the second highest Texas League mark since 1959, Howie also led the loop with 136 singles and 188 total hits. The Louisiana native was a participant in the 1991 Texas League All Star game, hitting clean-up and collecting two of the five hits the West squads had in the game. Howie was named the MVP of the initial Double A All Star Game. Later in the 1991 season, Howie capped his fabulous season when he was elected to the Texas League's post-season all star team.

Gravle Howlett - Executive

Grayle Howlett was one of the most innovative and successful of the young executives that arrived in the Texas League following World War II. Sent to Tulsa in 1946 by the Chicago Cubs, Howlett was one of the first club executives in the league to promote the game year 'round. One of his first steps was to begin publishing a monthly newsletter for fans and media to keep up with the Oilers all year long. To help attract more fans to Oilers' games, Howlett oversaw a painting and improvement regime that helped brighten Tulsa's Texas Park. Howlett's many efforts were a success as the Oilers drew over 200,000 fans for the first time in their history in 1948 and averaged over 200,000 fans from 1947 through 1950. In 1953, he arranged for the first televised minor league game. That followed his having arranged for the first coast-to-coast broadcast of a minor league game on the Mutual Radio Network of a contest between Tulsa and Oklahoma City. Looking after the Tulsa players, Howlett was one of the first operators to arrange for team travel by sleeper bus. His decision to attract the locally popular St. Louis Cardinals affiliation when it became available after the 1958 helped Tulsa lead the league in attendance for the next seven season.

Went Hubbard - Executive

Went Hubbard has been influential in the success of the franchise in Tulsa, as well as a respected voice in matters concerning the direction of the Texas League for nearly 20 years. Hubbard bought the Tulsa club in late 1986. Under his direction, he funded numerous renovations of Drillers Stadium, including one that saw the addition of a second tier. In 2002, the Drillers became the first Texas League team to draw more than 300,000 fans for ten consecutive years. During his tenure, the Tulsa club was twice the recipient of the Bob Freitas Award as the top Double-A club. The Tulsa club also was named the winner of the John H. Johnson Award in 1999. The Johnson award recognizes a club's long term stability and contribution to their community and to baseball.

Tim Ireland - Manager

In six Texas League seasons, Ireland's regular season was 468--368, with a .554 winning percentage, one of the best in league history. He also had a post-season record of 24-13, .648. He guided El Paso, Tulsa and Frisco to the league championship series, winning titles in El Paso and Frisco, in 1994 and 2004 respectively. His club reached the championship series in five of his six years as a manager in the loop.

John Jaha - Player

Easily the leading slugger in the Texas League in 1991, leading league hitters in home runs, RBI, runs scored, hits, extra-base hits, total bases, on-base percentage and slugging. His total of 134 RBI was the highest by any Texas League player since Ken Guettler drove in 143 in 1956. Making Jaha's totals even more impressive is that he drove in his total of 134 in just 130 games. A fine fielding first baseman, Jaha led his position in assists and was second in total chances. One of just six batters in the 1990's to have as many as 30 home runs in a season, Jaha was the 1991 Texas League Player of the Year, helping lead El Paso to a record of 81-55 and a place in the league championship series.

Gregg Jefferies - Player

A power hitting infielder, Jefferies came to the Texas League with a vaunted reputation as a hot hitting prospect. He did not disappoint league fans. After a brief and flashy glimpse of his talents in 1986, Jefferies had a spectacular season in 1987, leading the league in doubles, while batting .367, mashing 20 homers, driving in 101 runs and stealing 26 bases. For his efforts, Jefferies was voted to the Texas League post-season All-Star team, as well as being named the league's Player of the Year.

Tom Jenkins - Player

Over the course of his first three seasons in the league, Tom Jenkins was one of the finest hitters the league had ever seen, hitting .361 from 1926 through 1927. Jenkins won the league batting title with a .374 mark in 1926, then followed that with seasons in 1927 and 1928 in which he scored over 120 runs, had over 200 hits and drove in over 120 runs each season. Also an accomplished left fielder, Jenkins led Wichita Falls in hitting in the 1927 Dixie Series, helping the Spudders sweep New Orleans four games to none. Jenkins hit .428 in the one-sided series that saw the Spudders outscore the Pelicans 26-3.

Gus Johns - Pitcher

Johns was one of the important contributors on the great Fort Worth clubs of the early 1920's. The curve balling left hand pitcher won 20 or more games three times and led the league in ERA twice between 1921 and 1925.

Tom Kayser - Executive

President of the Texas League from March 1992 through February 2017, Tom Kayser has led the loop for 25 seasons, the longest serving leader in the long history of the Texas League, surpassing the tenure of J. Alvin Gardner, who was the league's chief executive from late 1929 until 1954. During Kayser's long term of service, he helped guide the league into the second Golden Age and arguably the most prosperous period in league history. Over his 25 years, vibrant new cities entered the league, new facilities were built in every league location and overall attendance increased from 1.6 million in 1991 to over 3.1 million in 2008. An avid historian, Kayser was the co-author of two Texas League related books, while he helped rebuild and rediscover vast tracts of the league's storied past. A former minor league club operator and owner and player development executive with Pittsburgh and Cincinnati prior to his election as Texas League president, Kayser was selected as the Eastern League Executive of the Year in 1980. In 2003, he was the recipient of Minor League Baseball's Warren Giles Award, that annually honors outstanding service as a league president, while in 2016 Kayser was selected as the Minor League Executive of the Year by Baseball America.

Ed Knoblauch - Player

An 11-year Texas League player with five teams (Houston 1942, 1946-48; Houston-Shreveport-Tulsa 1949; Tulsa 1950-51; Dallas 1951-54; Beaumont 1954-55; Dallas 1955). He was a strong-armed center fielder who hit over .300 in eight of his 11 seasons. He is first or second in seven Texas League all-time hitting categories

Eddie Konetchy - Player

Konetchy was a veteran of 15 Major League seasons when he arrived in Fort Worth for the 1925 season. He was being asked to replace the legendary Clarence "Big Boy" Kraft, who retired after the 1924 season during which he drove in 196 runs. Konetchy was up to the task, helping lead the Panthers to their sixth straight league pennant, driving in 166 runs and stroking 86 extra-base hits, of which 41 were homers. Though his production dipped in 1926, the 40-year-old first baseman still amassed 64 extra-base hits and drove in 104 runs, just 14 off the league lead.

Clarence "Big Boy" Kraft - Player

Kraft played seven seasons in Fort Worth (1918-24) on the great teams of the early 1920's. He was the top home run hitter of his era, setting the, then, league mark for homers in 1924 with 55. He drove in 196 runs in 1924. The total is still a single-season league record. He hit 150 of his career 170 home runs in his final four TL seasons.

Paul LaGrave - Executive

A former Texas League infielder, LaGrave earned his fame as the director of Fort Worth from 1916 to 1929. Working with Jake Atz, he helped construct the Fort Worth dynasty that finished in first place from 1919 through 1925, winning six consecutive TL titles and five of six Dixie Series, an event that along with Walter Morris, he is credited with formulating.

Chuck Lamson - Executive

Chuck Lamson went from a promising pitching prospect, who in 1980, would miss pitching a no-hitter for the Drillers by one out, to an injured player hoping to stay in the game by becoming the grounds keeper, caring for the field on which he once played. A sales representative for the Drillers during the off seasons of 1980 and 1981, Lamson joined the Drillers full time in 1982, rising quickly in the organization to become an assistant general manager in 1984. Named Executive Vice President/General Manager in 1995, Lamson helped lead the Drillers to levels of success never before seen by a professional club in Tulsa. In 2006, Chuck bought controlling interest in the club from Went Hubbard. Over the next few years, he worked tirelessly to try to replace Drillers Stadium with a modern playing facility, which he accomplished with the opening of ONEOK Field in 2010. Lamson and the Drillers received numerous awards during his tenure. In 1996, 1998 and 2010, Chuck was named the Texas League Executive of the Year. In 1992, 1996 and 2004, the Drillers were named the Texas League Organization of the Year. In 1999, the Drillers received the John H. Johnson award from Minor League Baseball, an award that recognized long term stability and contribution to the community. Finally, in 1992 and 2005, the club was recognized by Baseball America with the Bob Freitas Award which recognizes long term stability and success in Minor League Baseball. Following the 2010 season, Lamson sold his interest in the Drillers to Dale and Jeff Hubbard, ending his 32 year association with the club.

Joe Macko - Player/Manager/Executive

Macko was a dependable slugger, mostly with Dallas and Tulsa in the 1950's. In his eight-year TL career, five as a regular, he hit 141 homers, good for fifth place on the all-time league list. Playing mostly at first and third base in his league career, Macko also managed one season, for Amarillo in 1963. Following his playing career, he became a respected executive with the Fort Worth and Dallas-Fort Worth clubs, prior to a long career with the Texas Rangers.

Con Maloney - Executive

A loyal and supportive member of the Texas League, Con Maloney purchased the Jackson franchise from the New York Mets in 1982, remaining the majority owner of the club until 1998, when he sold the team to Ryan-Sanders Baseball. Con continued as a minority owner of the club through 1999, then after its move to Round Rock through the 2004 season, amassing a total of 24 years in the loop. A respected voice among league owners, Maloney, who had been a state senator in Mississippi, served as the interim president of the league during parts of 1991 and 1992 after the death of Carl Sawatski, as well as on a number of important Double A and Minor League Baseball boards and committees. During his stewardship of the Jackson Mets and later the Generals, his club was in post-season play 10 times, reaching the championship series eight times, while winning four Texas League titles.

James "Curley" Maloney - Player/Pitcher/Manager

One of the pioneers in the early years of the loop, Maloney participated in 17 of the first 21 years of the existence of the Texas League as a pitcher, player and manager. In the early years of his career in the league, Maloney was a pitcher who had moderate success. After the league was reorganized in 1902, he was an integral member of the powerhouse Corsicana team that ran away with the league pennant. In 101 games that season, Maloney led the league with 101 runs scored, 140 hits and 31 doubles. In 1908, he would lead the league, again, in hits (169) and doubles (34) while playing for Dallas. In 1904, Maloney took over the Dallas club as manager, guiding them to six consecutive winning seasons, as well as and the TL pennant in 1909. A dependable player on defense, Maloney played both infield and outfield during his long career, leading center fielders in chances in 1905, games in 1906 and assists in 1910.

Joe Martina - Pitcher

Martina, who was one of the most popular figures while with the Beaumont club, holds the Texas League career record for strikeouts with 1,412. He is also third in career wins with 158 and ninth in career ERA with a 2.93 mark. Martina's two best seasons in the league came in back-to-back years with Beaumont when he was 28-13 with a 2.14 ERA in 1919 and 20-14 with a 2.88 ERA in 1920.

Wilson Matthews - Umpire

He is considered the finest umpire in the early years of the league. He was in the league during the period 1899-1917, 12 of those years as an umpire.

John J. McCloskey - Founder

The founder of the Texas League in 1887 at the age of 26. A player, manager and league organizer for six seasons beginning in 1888. He was instrumental keeping interest in baseball alive in the region through the end of the 19th century. He played for and managed Houston to a first place finish in 1889 and 1892. He managed a total of five different Texas League clubs, Austin-San Antonio, 1888; Houston, 1889-90 and 1892; Dallas, 1897-98 and Beaumont in 1919.

Willie McCovey - Player

At Dallas in 1957, McCovey hit .281 with 21 doubles, 9 triples, 11 home runs and 65 RBI's. He also had a three home run game and a three triple game during that season.

Monte McFarland - Pitcher

A great hitting pitcher, McFarland's 32 wins in 1895 are topped in league history only by Lucky Wright, who won 33 in 1902. In addition to appearing in 46 games as a pitcher in 1895, McFarland played another 47 in the outfield, hitting .332 for the season. His 29 extra-base hits that year were the second highest on a very good hitting Fort Worth club. At bat and on the mound, McFarland helped Fort Worth to a 80-40 record, a first place finish in the second half and participated in Fort Worth's championship series win over Dallas

Joe Medwick - Player

At Houston in 1931 and 1932, he twice hit over .300 and had a total of 93 doubles, 18 triples, 45 home runs and 237 RBI's. He hit .354 in 1932, while leading the league in home runs (19) and RBI's (126) in 1931.

Eddie Moore - Player

Called the greatest centerfielder of his era, Eddie Moore was one of the finest all-around players in Texas League history, a durable and speedy player, as well as an accomplished hitter. With Fort Worth for seven consecutive seasons from 1926 through 1932, Moore set a league record that still stands by playing in 573 consecutive games for the Panthers from July 9, 1926 until April 29, 1930. At the plate, Moore had a career batting average of .305. His most productive season at the bat was 1929 when the Texas native hit .335, while leading the league with 143 runs scored and 30 triples, setting a league single season mark that he still holds. Moore was also known for his great eye at the plate, walking 547 times, while striking out just 225 times in over 4,000 Texas League plate appearances. Moore, a left-handed batter, also had more than 200 hits in a season twice, while scoring more than 100 runs in each of his first four seasons. However, as proficient as he was at-bat, it was in the field that Moore truly excelled, leading league center fielders in fielding in 1927, 1929, 1930 and 1931, in games played in center field in 1926, 1928 and 1929 and in double plays in 1928 and 1929

Taylor Moore - Executive

Taylor Moore purchased a minority share of the Shreveport club in 1974, becoming the majority owner of the team in 1976, a stake he held until 1999, when the Captains were sold to Mandalay Baseball, effectively running the franchise for 26 years. During his tenure, Moore worked with the city of Shreveport to build what would become the first modern park in the league in more than a generation. The facility, Fairgrounds Field, was designed with a modern television studio that allowed the club to have a regular slate of games broadcast locally for many years. The studio also served as the location for the production of local sports shows, as well as for the production of local advertising and other local sporting events. A member of various Texas League, Double A and Minor League boards and committees during his tenure, Moore's club's reached the championship series five times, winning the Texas League title three times.

Joe Morgan - Player

At San Antonio in 1964, he was the league Player of the Year, hitting .323 with a league leading 42 doubles and 90 RBI's for the league champion Bullets.

J. Walter Morris - Player/Manager/Executive

Involved in the Texas League for the better part of nearly 40 years, Walter Morris had one of the most varied careers of any of the men to have been associated with this loop. Morris first appeared in the league as a light hitting, slick fielding shortstop on the legendary 1902 Corsicana Oilers. Though he hit just .244 that season, he was 6-for-8 in Corsicana's epic 51-3 win over Texarkana and led the league that season with 10 triples. After three years in the South Texas League and four more in the South Atlantic and Southern Leagues, Morris returned to the Texas League in 1910 as the shortstop, manager and owner of the Fort Worth Panthers, where he stayed until selling the club in 1914. During the 1910 season, Morris is credited with creating the first rain check, an innovation that was quickly adopted by other league clubs and teams throughout minor league baseball. In 1915, Morris was elected Texas League president, a position he held until 1920. After spending a short time away from baseball, the Rockwall, Texas native returned in 1922 as the owned of the Dallas club, operating the Steers until 1928, During this tenure with the Dallas, the Steers won the Texas League title in 1926, defeating New Orleans in the Dixie Series four games to two. After spending a number of years as a minor league organizer and as a president of several lower minor leagues, Morris, once again came home to the Texas League, running the Shreveport club in 1932 and 1938-39 and Fort Worth in 1933 and 1940.

Red Murff - Pitcher

After going 27-28 in the two seasons prior to 1955, Murff had one of the best seasons by a Texas League pitcher in the post-World War II era. In 1955, Murff was 27-11 in 43 games, posting a league best ERA of 1.99. He also led the league with 28 complete games. No pitcher in the Texas League has won as many games in one season since Murff's 27 in 1955. In the long history of the league there are just 16 other occasions when a pitcher has won as many as 27 games in a single season.

Pat Newnam - Player

A 20-year TL veteran, nine as a manager and one as an umpire (San Antonio 1907-08, 1929; Houston 1909-18; Beaumont 1921; Galveston 1922-23; Umpire 1924). He played on pennant winners in San Antonio in 1908 and Houston in 1909, 1912, 1913 and 1914. He stole a league best 422 bases in his career. He also led the league in home runs with 18 in 1908.

Mike O'Connor - Founder

He played 13 years in the league beginning in 1888 (Fort Worth 1888, 1890; Austin 1889, 1898-99, 1905; San Antonio 1892, 1896-97; Sherman-Dallas 1895; Denison 1896; Corsicana 1902-03; Paris 1904; Waco 1905). A terrific hitter, he finished the 1896 season with a .395 average in 114 games. He also managed the great 1902 Corsicana club that won 27 consecutive games and finished 87-23. He was on two first place clubs, Dallas in 1895 and Corsicana in 1902 and two pennant winners, San Antonio in 1897 and Corsicana in 1902.

Eddie Palmer - Player/Pitcher/Umpire

Palmer is one of the longest serving men in Texas League history, totaling 16 years, eight as a player and another eight as an umpire. A good hitting, steady second baseman, Palmer was on four pennant-winning clubs, Dallas in 1917 and the 1918 season that was shortened by World War I, then with the powerhouse Fort Worth Panthers in 1924 and 1925. Palmer led all second basemen in games played in 1917, 1924 and 1925, fielding in 1918 and 1924 and total chances in 1924 and 1925. After his playing career ended, Palmer returned to the league as a member of the umpiring staff, working eight seasons, 1932-34, 1936-37 and 1939-41. Palmer was widely respected by players and fans alike for his fairness, professionalism and genial disposition.

Al Papai - Pitcher

A Texas League workhorse and one of the best pitchers of his generation, Papai amassed a 103-66 record over six full seasons that included three seasons during which the 6' 3" right-hander won more than 20 games. His initial season in the loop in 1947 saw the 30-year-old post a 21-10 record, with a league leading 27 complete games. Three seasons later, Papai returned to Houston and was even better, leading the loop with a 23-9 record, and, again, with 22 complete games. After leading Houston to league titles in 1947 and 1951, Papai finished his career with clubs that were, at best, mediocre. Yet in 1955, on an Oklahoma City club that would finish 70-90, he had one of his finest seasons at the age of 38. While the Indians struggled through the season, Papai sparkled, producing a 23-7 record, with a 2.65 ERA. Noted for completing what he started, the Illinois native had 117 complete games in the more than 180 games that he started in his six full seasons in the Texas League. Papai was also a workhorse in post-season play, particularly in 1947 when he helped lead the Buffs to a Dixie Series title, going 4-1 in three post-season series, including 2-0 in Houston's six game Dixie series win over Mobile.

Bert Parke - Executive

A life-long resident of Little Rock, Bert's association with baseball in his hometown preceded the Arkansas Travelers, beginning when he joined a group that successfully brought baseball back to his home town in 1960. In the mid-1960's Bert joined the board and was named a member of the Travelers Executive Committee, serving as treasurer of the Travelers in the 1960's and 1970's. In 1980, following the death of Max Moses, Bert was elected President of the club, retaining that position until 2010 when he was named President Emeritus. During his involvement with the Travelers, Bert was active in moving the team to the Texas League in 1966, promoting the hiring of both Carl Sawatski and Bill Valentine as the General Manager of the Travelers, as well as helping to facilitate support for needed repairs to Ray Winder Field. During Bert's 30-year tenure as club President, he was also the Travelers representative on the Texas League Board of Directors.

Joe Pate - Pitcher

A 21-year veteran of the league as a pitcher and umpire (Dallas 1912-13; Fort Worth 1914, 1918-25, 1927-28; Shreveport 1931; Umpire 1933-39), Pate won a total of 195 games, second all-time in league history. Twice he won 30 games as a member of the great Fort Worth teams in the 1920's. After his pitching career ended, he returned to the league as an umpire for seven complete seasons.

Joe Patterson - Player

One of the fleetest outfielders of his era, Joe Patterson is the only player in Texas League history to lead the league in stolen bases in three consecutive seasons. Patterson led the league in thefts each season from 1962 through 1964, the year he stole 67 bags, the highest one season total in the league since Bobby Stow stole 70 in 1915. Patterson amassed a respectable .285 career average during parts of six seasons in the Texas League, while producing one of the top, all-time on-base percentages with a .387 mark. Patterson was the sparkplug that helped Tulsa win league championships in 1962 and 1963 and into the championship series in 1964, which the Oilers lost to San Antonio.

Jim Paul - Executive

As the owner of the El Paso Diablos from 1974-97, he was one of the most innovative promoters of the modern era. He was also one of the most decorated minor league operators, winning numerous national and Texas League awards. In addition, Jim also helped revive the minor leagues with the founding of the El Paso Seminars, helping to spread progressive ideas and sharing knowledge within the baseball community.

George Payne - Pitcher

A consistent winner in all eight of his Texas League seasons. He pitched for four first place clubs and two pennant winners. Payne is sixth in league history with 153 wins, 12th in shutouts with 24, eighth with 366 games pitched, while completing 157 of his career starts. He won 20 games twice, led the league in complete games in 1929 with 28 and innings pitched in 1931 with 321.

Albie Pearson - Player

A diminutive and speedy center fielder, the 5' 5" Pearson had one of the finest single Texas League seasons of his era. In addition to leading the loop with a .371 average, Pearson crafted a league best .456 on-base percentage, adding 75 walks to the 178 hits he gathered in just 122 games. More than just a contact hitter, Pearson had 42 extra base hits in his 480 at-bats in 1956, while he struck out just 33 times. A wide ranging fielder, Pearson also had a strong arm, leading all outfielders in '56 with 21 assists. Pearson would go on to a successful career with the Los Angeles Angels after winning the American League Rookie of the Year with the Washington Senators in 1958.

Homer Peel - Player

A 14-year league veteran with four clubs (Houston 1924-26, 1928, 1930-32; Fort Worth 1936-38; Shreveport 1939-40; Oklahoma City 1941-42). He led the league in numerous hitting categories, including batting average in 1937 with a .370 average. Has the top career bating average in league history with a .325 mark. He is in the top five for career batters in eight areas, while he is second all-time in extra-base hits and doubles. He played on two first place clubs, two pennant winners and two Dixie Series winners.

Cap Peterson - Player

The 1962 Texas League Player of the Year, El Paso's Cap Peterson had one of the finest seasons ever produced by a Texas League shortstop. Though he finished third in the race for the batting title, Peterson hit .335, with 29 home runs and a league leading 130 RBI. He also led the league with 70 extra-base hits, in total bases with 315 and in slugging percentage with a .599 mark. His terrific season helped the Sun Kings finish in first place in the league with an 80-60 record.

Adam Piatt - Player

Piatt became just the second Triple Crown winner in league history when he accomplished the feat in 1999. Piatt put together one of the finest offensive seasons in league history when he led or tied nine different offensive categories.

Howie Pollet - Pitcher

Pollet was 20-7 and 20-3 in his two seasons at Houston. In 1941 he led the league with a 1.16 ERA. Only one other pitcher, Walt Dickson at 1.06 in 1916, has had a lower ERA in league history.

Del Pratt - Player

Pratt came to the Texas League at the age of 38 to play for and manage Waco. In 1927, at the age of 40, Pratt became the first Texas League batter to win the Triple Crown. A dangerous hitter throughout his TL career, Pratt hit .374 in 1930 at the age of 43. A great contact hitter, Pratt rarely struck out, going down on strikes just 24 times in 562 at-bats in his big 1927 season. In his four seasons as a regular for Waco, Pratt struck out just 71 times in 1988 at bats. He managed in the league for nine, largely futile seasons, leading, for the most part, second division clubs.

Miles Prentice and Bob Richmond - Owners

Over the many years since purchasing the Midland Angels in 1990, Miles Prentice and Bob Richmond have been a perfect partnership for the Permian Basin franchise. Prentice has been the very visible majority owner, always being seen in Midland and elsewhere with his team's cap on his head. Extremely loyal to the Midland market, Prentice worked patiently with the city for nearly 10 years to replace the aging Christensen Stadium, his efforts culminating in the opening of a state of the art facility in 2002. New to the game when he agreed to purchase the team, Prentice relied on Richmond to help build and guide the business through the official baseball world. Together the pair assembled a terrific staff headed by long-time GM Monty Hoppel, while making their operation a model of consistency and success. One of the important hallmarks of the Prentice and Richmond ownership of the Midland club has been their emphasis on integrating the club into the fabric of the community. That attitude is best exemplified in their winter West Texas Sports Banquet which they began in 1991and has raised nearly $500,000 for local charities. In addition to many awards earned by the club under their leadership, both Prentice and Richmond have been deeply involved in Minor League Baseball, Prentice on a number of boards and committees, including the Board of Trustees and Richmond as the long-time president of the Northwest and Arizona Summer Leagues.

Randy Ready - Player/Manager

Few men have accomplished as much in two Texas League seasons as did Randy Ready as a player in 1982 and a manager in 2007. Playing for the El Paso Diablos in 1982, Ready led league batters in five different categories, including batting average. His .375 mark was the highest by any Texas Leaguer since Ox Eckhardt hit .379 in 1930. His average that season remains the 10th highest single season batting average in league history since 1902. Returning to the league 25 years later, Ready led San Antonio to a league championship, going 6-1 in the post-season, becoming one of the few former league stars to later win a league championship as a manager.

Mickey Rivers - Player

Born John Milton Rivers, the speedy outfielder would become known as "Mick the Quick" during a stellar Major League career. In 1970 Mickey Rivers aptly demonstrated the player he would become for the Angels, Yankees and Rangers, by having an almost unbelievable season for El Paso. In 114 games, the left-hand hitting Miami native led the league with a .343 batting average, a .426 on-base percentage, a .537 slugging percentage and an OPS of .963. He also led the loop with 99 runs scored and tied for the lead in hits with 154. Rivers also accomplished the rare feat of amassing double figures in doubles, triples and home runs, while also stealing 30 bases. For his efforts, Rivers was selected as a post-season Texas League All Star and was selected as the league's Player of the Year.

J. Doak Roberts - Founder

He was twice president of the Texas League (1904-06 and 1920-29). Roberts assisted in the revival of the league in 1902. He helped construct a powerful Houston club that won league titles in 1909, 1912 1913 and was co-champion in 1914. He served the league for over 27 years. He was the managing director of the powerful Corsicana club in 1902 that still holds the record for highest winning percentage in a single season.

Claud "Ug" Roberton - Player/Manager

A superb catcher and teacher, Robertson was considered one of the best overall catchers in the early history of the league. Known as a very hard worker and a great coach of young pitchers, he was a .279 hitter in 787 league games and led catchers in total chances in 1920 and fielding in 1926 and 1929. He also threw out a fantastic 111 runners attempting to steal in 1920. Robertson had a knack for getting hit by pitches, having led the league in that area for four different seasons, a skill that led to more than a few disagreements during his career.

Billy Jo Robidoux - Player

Another of a long line of El Paso sluggers, Billy Jo Robidoux was named the 1985 Texas League Player of the Year after leading the league in eight different statistical categories, including runs, hits, doubles, RBI and batting average. In 1985, Robidoux was part of a terrific El Paso squad that won both half seasons and finished with a record of 86-50, in no small measure due to his hitting accomplishments. His 132 RBI in 1985 set the El Paso franchise all time record, passing the mark set by Cap Peterson in 1962 when he drove in 130 runs.

Brooks Robinson - Player

At San Antonio in 1956, he led the league in fielding percentage at third base. He hit .272, with 28 doubles and 74 RBI's.

Hank "Rube" Robinson - Pitcher

In his lone season in the loop, Robinson put together one of the greatest single seasons for a pitcher in the history of the league. Robinson was noted for the ability to warm up quickly, which led to his having a number of wins in relief. A left handed hurler, Robinson also had wonderful control, walking just 60 batters in 300 innings, while striking out 243. A native of Arkansas, Robinson finished his career by pitching 12 consecutive years in the Southern Association at Little Rock. Over his professional career, he had a 273-195 record, winning nearly 60% of all his decisions.

Chuck Rose - Pitcher

A brilliant south paw in the early years of the league, Chuck Rose won 20 games four times, all with pennant winning clubs in Houston. During Houston's run of three consecutive pennants in 1912-14, Rose had a fantastic 71-27 record. With a career record of 145-96, Rose is fifth all-time in the league in wins and fifth all-time with 1,013 strikeouts and a league career record for shutouts with 42.

Al Rosen - Player

Rosen, third baseman for the Oklahoma City Indians in 1947, had one of the finest individual seasons in league history. In his one season in the League, Rosen led in batting (.349), hits (1860, doubles (47), extra-base hits (83), RBI's (141), total bases (330), slugging percentage (.619) and on-base percentage (.437). Among the outstanding single games during the year were a four double performance on April 16 and an eight RBI game on June 29. Rosen was elected as the player of the year following the 1947 season.

William Ruggles - Executive

He was the historian of the Texas League. He published numerous league history books beginning in 1931. An employee and statistician of the league from 1920 until 1964. Ruggles was also a long-time sports writer and later sports editor of the Dallas Morning News. His research of the early years of the Texas League is essential to our understanding of the founding and the origins of this league.

Ron Santo - Player

Playing in his first season as a professional, 19-year-old Ron Santo proved that he belonged in the Texas League after playing in all 136 of San Antonio's games in 1959, hitting .327 and leading the league in doubles and put outs at third base. It would take the slick fielding Santo just one more half season to get to Chicago where he became a mainstay with the Cubs for more than a decade. Santo was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2011.

Carl Sawatski - Executive

After retiring from a successful playing career, Carl Sawatski joined the Texas League as the General Manager of the Arkansas Travelers, serving the Trav's from 1968 through the 1975 season. In 1976, Sawatski was elected President of the Texas League, serving the loop until his death in November 1991. His 16 years as head of the TL is the third longest tenure of any Texas League president, behind only J. Alvin Gardner and Tom Kayser. The Pennsylvania native joined both the Travelers and the Texas League during a time of instability and economic challenges in the minor leagues. In the 1960's Minor League Baseball was in an unsettled era that saw many cities lose their teams. During his tenure running the Arkansas club, Carl helped stabilize the Travelers business operations, guiding them for eight seasons, while winning the Texas League Executive of the Year award in 1970. By the mid-1970's, baseball was on the verge of a resurgence and much more stability. During Carl's tenure at the top of the Texas League there were just three franchise shifts and league attendance grew by over one million fans from 1976 to 1991. In addition to his Texas League executive award, in 1987, Carl was the recipient of Minor League Baseball's Warren Giles Award that annually honors outstanding service as a league president.

Ken Schrom - Pitcher/Executive

A pitcher for the El Paso Diablos in the late 1970's, Schrom began preparing for a life after his playing career when he joined the sales staff of the Diablos in 1981, working for the club each off season until joining the club on a full-time basis in 1989, following a successful career in the American League. Over the following 16 seasons, Schrom became the Diablos Director of Sales and Marketing and later their Executive Vice President, before moving to Corpus Christi to become the General Manager of the Hooks in 2005 and in 2007, club president. During his 36 year association with the league, Schrom participated in the success of the Diablos, who won the Baseball America Bob Freitas Award in 1898, as well as the Texas League Organization of the Year Award and Minor League Baseball Larry MacPhail Awards in 1993. During his tenure in Corpus Christi, the Hooks have consistently been one of the top draws in all of Double A baseball. For their efforts under Schrom, Corpus Christi won the TL Organization of the Year trophy twice, in 2009 and 2015, while the Idaho native was elected the TL Executive of the Year in 2005.

John "Ziggy" Sears - Player/Pitcher/Umpire

After his playing career, which included stops in Fort Worth (1918-27), San Antonio (1927), Shreveport (1928) and Waco (1928), Sears joined the Texas League umpire staff in 1929, where he stayed until called to the National League in 1935. Among the special accomplishments of Sears' career, the most notable may have been his 11 RBI game on May 19, 1925 versus San Antonio. Sears is in the career top 10 in many offensive categories including runs (883, 3rd), hits (1,492, 5th), extra-base hits (444, 5th), total bases (2,176, 5th), singles (1,048, 7th), doubles (307, tie 3rd) and RBI's (664, 7th).

Carey Selph - Player/Manager

Selph hit over .300 in all five seasons in the league. His career average of .322 is second highest in league history. He was also tough to strike out, going down on strikes just 137 times in 3184 TL at-bats. Selph was also one of the outstanding second baseman in loop history, leading the league in a number of fielding categories annually. He returned to manage Houston for two seasons, leading them to first place in 1933.

Al Simmons - Player

At Shreveport in 1923, Simmons hit .360 with 58 extra-base hits and 90 RBI's.

Jimmy Slagle - Player

A speedy, athletic center fielder on the powerful, pennant winning 1896 Houston Buffaloes, Slagle led the league in three separate batting departments while establishing a record that has never been broken. In addition to leading the league in stolen bases and hits, the Houston leadoff hitter scored 171 run in just 131 games. That run total has never been topped in the more than 100 seasons that have followed Slagle's singular season. Additionally, along with team mate Charlie Schaffer, Slagle was the first of two batters to top 200 hits in 1896, the first time that any hitter had gathered more than 200 hits in a single Texas League season. After two more minor league seasons, Slagle went to the National league, where he was a member of the pennant winning Chicago Cubs' clubs 1906-08, winning the World Series with them the later two seasons.

Tris Speaker - Player

At Houston in 1907, he led the league with a .314 batting average.

Milt Steengrafe - Player/Pitcher/Umpire

He had one of the longest careers in the Texas League, eight years as a pitcher and 15 years as an umpire (Beaumont 1924; Shreveport 1925; Wichita Falls 1927-31; Wichita Falls-Shreveport-Tyler-Fort Worth 1932; Umpire 1938-42, 1946-1955). He compiled a 95-76 record on the mound in the 1920's and 1930's, leading the league in winning percentage in 1928 with a 22-8 record (.733). Was the longest serving league umpire in league history, working all 15 Texas League seasons between 1938 and 1955.

Bobby Stow - Player

He was a 10-year veteran of the league, the first eight with Fort Worth from 1915-20 (Dallas 1921-24; Shreveport 1923). He is rated as possibly the greatest shortstop in league history. He led the league in fielding percentage six times. He also led the league in stolen bases five times, twice with consecutive seasons of 70 and 60.

Larry "Moose" Stubing - Player/Manager

Stubing was one of the top sluggers of the 1960's, as well as a premier fielding first baseman. With 138 TL homers, mostly for El Paso, Stubing is sixth on that all-time list. He is second, all-time, in slugging percentage with a .504 mark, topped only by the celebrated slugger Clarence Kraft. "Moose" finished first in fielding average at first base in 1963 and was second in 1960, 1964 and 1966. Returning to the league in 1978 to manage El Paso, Stubing won both half seasons, then swept Jackson 3-0 to win the league championship.

Homer Summa - Player

Summa was the offensive engine that drove a very good Wichita Falls club to a 94-61, second place finish in 1922. His one season in the Texas League ranks with the very best of the single season performances in Texas League history. Summa's 225 hits broke the existing league record, while his 131 runs scored was just one behind the existing league mark of 132, set the previous season. His .362 batting average was the third highest up to that time in the league's modern era. A fair, but slow outfielder, Summa finished the 1922 season playing 12 games for Cleveland, hitting .348

Bruce Sutter - Pitcher

A two-year pitcher for the Midland Cubs, Sutter had a stellar season for the Cubs in 1975, perfecting the split-finger fast ball that he had learned following arm surgery in 1972. In 41 games in '75, Sutter tied for the league lead with 13 saves, while crafting a 2.15 ERA. He also appeared in three of the four Midland games in the league championship series that ended in a tie with Lafayette due to rain, allowing two hits and no runs in three total innings. Sutter, who in his two seasons in seasons at Midland crafted a career 1.96 ERA, went on to have an outstanding career with the Cubs, Cardinals and Braves as a lights-out closer from 1975 through 1986, winning election to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006

Don Sutton - Pitcher

At Albuquerque in 1965, Sutton had the best winning percentage with a 15-6 record (.714).

Frank Tanana - Pitcher

A slender left-handed pitcher from Detroit, Frank Tanana thrived in his only season in the Texas League, earning Pitcher of the Year honors in 1973 in spite of working half his games in the notoriously hitter friendly Dudley Field in El Paso. In 26 starts in 1973, Tanana won 16, led the league in complete games with 15, innings pitched with 206 and strikeouts with 197. Tanana put together a season-long ERA of 2.71, less than half of the El Paso team ERA which was a league worst 4.58. In addition to being named the Texas League Pitcher of the Year in 1973, Tanana was also named a 1973 post-season TL all star.

Arch Tanner - Player

He played 14 seasons in the Texas League (Waco 1912-19; Wichita Falls 1920-25). He was a good fielding and hitting shortstop during his first ten years in the league. He led the league in fielding percentage twice at shortstop. Also led the league in hits in 1915 and doubles in 1914. He is in the top 10 in nine all-time TL hitting categories, including third in hits with 1,555.

Pete Turgeon - Player

A power hitting, speedy infielder, Turgeon was also one of the top second baseman of his era. A good base runner and lead-off hitter, Turgeon had six seasons during which he scored 100 or more runs, four of them consecutively, both Texas League records. In 1923 and 1927, Turgeon led the loop in sacrifice hits. The led second basemen in chances and games played in 1923, while leading second baseman in double plays in 1928. Having played in 1,097 games over eight seasons, Turgeon is ranked 7th all time in runs scored (787), tied for sixth in home runs (138), eighth in extra-base hits(426), ninth in runs batted in (627) and tenth in total bases (1,968).

Bill Valentine - Executive

He began his career in the league as an umpire (1954-60), returning as a broadcaster (1969-75), then, since 1976, has been the General Manager of the Arkansas Travelers. Along with Jim Paul, he led the revival of minor league baseball as an innovative promoter. He has also received numerous league and baseball awards including Texas League Executive of the Year five times. Has more than 40 years service in the league, including the last 29 as the chief executive of the Travelers.

Lee Velarde - Groundskeeper

For the first 28 of the existence of the Midland franchise in the Texas League, their home turf knew just one head groundskeeper, Lee Velarde. Working at the Midland facility alternately known as Cubs Stadium (1972-84), Angels Stadium (1985-94) and Christensen Stadium (1995-2001), Velarde diligently tended the grounds there from 1972, until his retirement in 1999. In the history of the circuit, he is one of the longest serving groundskeepers any TL team has ever had. Prior to his assignment to care for the surface at Cubs Stadium, Velarde had been in charge of caring for all of the youth fields in Midland from 1954 until the arrival of the Cubs in 1972. During his term as a Texas League groundskeeper, Society and Grounds Management magazine gave Cubs Field their Best Field award in 1976, while Lee was presented a National Maintenance Award for his care of Cubs Stadium in 1977. A hard working family man, Velarde was also a noted amateur slugger in his youth, often hitting clean-up for the locally famous Midland Colts. Velarde is also the father of former Major League player Randy Velarde.

Al Vincent - Manager

Vincent led his team's to post-season play in eight of his 12 seasons, compiling a record of 50-36, which includes a victory in the 1946 Dixie Series when Dallas swept Atlanta 4-0. Vincent managed 1,879 games in the Texas League, winning 974. Vincent won league crowns with three different clubs. In addition to Dallas in 1946, he took Beaumont and Tulsa to the Dixie Series in 1938 and 1949 respectively.

Paul Wachtel - Pitcher

He spent 13 seasons in the Texas League, mostly with Fort Worth (Fort Worth 1918-28; Houston 1929; Dallas-Waco 1930). He is number one in career victories in league history with 231. He is also first; all-time; in complete games (242) and total innings pitched (3,177), while he is second all-time with 40 shutouts. Wachtel won 20 or more games six times during his Texas League career.

Bill Walberg - Broadcaster

Joining Jackson in 1977, Walberg spent 23 seasons calling plays for the Mets and the Generals, his tenure ending only after the Generals were sold and moved to Round Rock following the 1999 season. He is on a short list of broadcaster that has spent as many as 20 seasons calling TL games in the long history of this loop. A popular broadcaster in Jackson during and after his Texas League career, Walberg called 11 no-hitters during his tenure, six of which were authored by Jackson hurlers. He was also behind the microphone during 10 Texas League championship series, five of which were won by Jackson and two TL All Star games both of which ended with dramatic final at-bat calls. The first, in 1984 when Jackson outfielder and future Oakland GM Billy Beane gave the East an 8-7 win when he hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth and, again, in 1992, when Shreveport's Adell Davenport, a Jackson native, capped a seven-run, ninth inning rally with a three-run homer that gave the East a stunning 8-6 win. In 1999, Walberg called the 26-inning game at San Antonio one of his two most memorable broadcasts. The other was the shocking end to the 1994 East Division Series that vaulted the Generals into the Championship Series after Jackson players clubbed back-to-back, two-out homers in the bottom of the ninth inning of the fifth and final game.

Tom Walker - Pitcher

A first round draft choice by the Baltimore Orioles in 1968, Tom Walker wondered if his career had flattened out by the time he came to the Texas League. While his season totals in 1971 were enviable, it was a performance late in the season that gave him renewed hope for his career and forever put him in the Texas League record book. Starting a game for the Dallas Fort Worth Spur at Albuquerque against the Dodgers on August 4, 1971, Walker tossed a 15-inning, 1-0, no-hit win. Arguably the greatest pitched game in the long history of the Texas League. Before or since, there has never been a Texas League game to equal his feat that night. The next longest no-hitter in the Texas League prior to Walker's 15-inning gem was a 12-inning, 2-1 win by Grover Brant on May 31, 1912.

Frank Walsh - Umpire

Walsh spent nine seasons in the Texas League over two different spans in the 1950's and 1960's. He did not join the league until 1957, when he was nearly 52 years old. After the close of the 1961 season he was summoned to the National League, working there through the 1963 season. He returned to the TL in 1965, working in the loop until 1968 when he was felled by a stroke. During the 1966 season, Walsh was honored prior to a game at Dallas-Fort Worth for having worked 4,000 consecutive games during his professional career. Players considered Walsh a good, fair, consistent and hard working umpire.

Frank "Pop" Weikart - Player/Pitcher/Manager

Weikert was one of the most accomplished and popular players during the early decades of the league. He was an active player in the loop over the first 20 years of its existence from 1888 through 1908. Weikert was outstanding at the plate, in the field and the mound, going 27-11 for Houston in 1889, then hitting .380 and .385 for Austin in 1896 and 1897. A slick fielding first baseman, Weikert capped his TL career as the player/manager at Galveston in 1907 and 1908, leading the loop in home runs in '07.

Bill Whittaker - Pitcher

Bill Whittaker was member of the fabulous Fort Worth Panthers, who dominated Texas League play from 1919 through 1925. Joining the Panthers in a trade Galveston in 1917, Whittaker blossomed with Fort Worth in 1919, the first of three consecutive 20 plus win seasons for the club. His best season for the Panthers was 1920, when he was 24-6, leading the league in winning percentage and going 2-0 in the Dixie Series, winning the series clincher over Little Rock. The St. Louis native finished his seven seasons in the league with a 109-75 record and a career ERA of 2.42, which is second all-time in league history.

George Whiteman - Player

A member of the great 1906 Cleburne club, Whiteman played over 1,400 games over 11 seasons in the League. During his career at Waco 1905, Cleburne 1906, Houston 1907-08, 1911-13, 1921-22, Wichita Falls/Galveston 1923 and Galveston in 1924, Whiteman gathered more outfield assists than any other player in the history of the loop.

Dick Whitworth - Pitcher

Whitworth pitched 12 complete seasons in the Texas League and holds the record for the most games pitched with 453. He is also tied for third in career wins with 158. A good fielding pitcher, Whitworth was also durable, pitching 167 complete games. He was on one first place club and three pennant winners. Whitworth's career was as follows: Houston 1926-28; Fort Worth 1929-34, Tulsa 1935, Oklahoma City 1936, Oklahoma City/Fort Worth 1937, Fort Worth/Dallas 1938.

Billy Williams - Player

At San Antonio in 1959, Williams batted .318 in 94 games with 22 doubles, 7 triples, 10 home runs and 79 RBI's.

Dick Williams - Player

A speedy, dependable center fielder, Dick Williams had a career batting average of .301 during his nearly four years with Fort Worth. In 1949, Williams had his best season for the Cats, hitting .310, scoring 109 runs, while driving in 114. Williams went on to become one of the most successful managers in Major League Baseball history.

Don Wilson - Pitcher

Wilson dominated the Texas League as few others have since advent of the modern affiliated era, doing so as a 21-year-old. Named the Texas League Pitcher of the Year in 1966, Wilson led the league in just one category that season, shutouts, with six. However, the 6'2" right hander finished the Texas League season second in ERA, wins and strikeouts, while he was third among pitchers in complete games and winning percentage. After a September promotion to Houston, Wilson never pitched another minor league game, becoming a key member of the Astros rotation from 1967 until his untimely death in January 1979.

William "Lucky" Wright - Pitcher

The dominant hurler on the legendary 1902 Corsicana club that won 86 of 108 games, William "Lucky" Wright started 42 games that season, completed 41, won 33, while losing just eight times. During Corsicana's 27 game winning streak (June 8-July 5), Wright won 10 times, including four in succession, single games on June 26 and 28, and a doubleheader on June 29th. The first game of the doubleheader is the only start that Wright did not complete that season. Ejected late in the game after a dispute with the lone umpire assigned to the game, Wright returned to start the second game, winning yet another complete game. Wright's 33 wins, 41 complete game and 385 innings pitched all remain Texas League single-season records.

Hank Wyse - Pitcher

A durable right hander for three Texas League clubs over six seasons from 1941-1952, Hank Wyse won 20 games twice, both for Tulsa in 1941 and 1942, when he produced a combined 40-15 record for the Oilers. For his career, Wyse is fourth all-time in the league with a 2.71 ERA, fourth all-time with a .650 career winning percentage (89-48) and tied for seventh in league history with 20 shutouts.

Burl Yarbrough - Executive

Joining the San Antonio club as General Manager in the fall of 1987, the 2016 season represented Yarbrough's 29th in the Alamo City. In his early years with the club, operating in obsolete V. J. Keefe Stadium, Yarbrough quickly established a fun atmosphere that led to a 66% increase in attendance by 1993. With the club's move to a new stadium in 1994, Yarborough and his staff shattered the existing Texas League attendance record, drawing over 411,000 fans, becoming just the third TL club to draw more than 400,000 fans in a single season, and the first since 1949. During their first 22 seasons in Wolff Municipal Stadium, Burl and his staff drew well over seven million fans to regular season, post-season and all star games, consistently drawing more than 300,000 fans per season. For his efforts, Yarbrough, the president of the Missions since 2004, was voted the Texas League Executive of the Year three times, in 1989, 1994 and 2011, while the Missions received the Texas League's Organization of the Year Award in 1997 and 2016 and the Baseball America Bob Freitas Award in 1994.

Anthony Young - Pitcher

A 38th round draft pick by the New York Mets in 1987, three years later, Anthony Young produced one on the most dominant seasons by a Texas League pitcher in recent league history. A post-season all star and the 1990 Texas League Pitcher of the Year, Young led the loop in wins with 15, winning percentage with a .833 mark and a 1.65 ERA, which was 62 points lower than the pitcher directly behind him. Young's ERA in 1990 was the lowest in the League since Fort Worth's Johnny Van Cuyk posted a 1.42 average in 1946 and remains the 8th lowest ERA to lead the league since the statistic began being published in 1916.

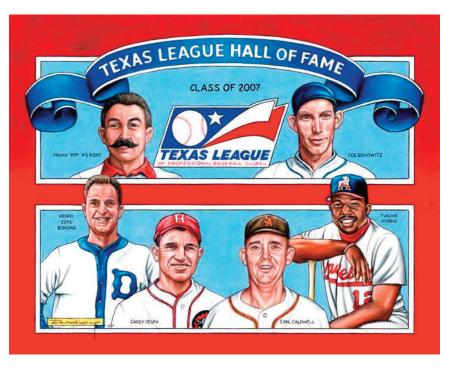

Did You Know?....that over the life of the circuit, many Texas League batting leaders have gone on to lead the major leagues in the identical categories? Some examples: In 1907 Tris Speaker hit .314 to pace the league in batting average. In 1916, he led the entire major leagues with a .386 mark. In 1934 "Beau" Bell led the Texas League with 51 doubles. In 1937 he led the American League with the same total. In 1942 Dick Wakefield led the league with 192 hits and 44 doubles. Just one year later, he led the American League in the same categories, collecting 200 hits and 38 doubles. Hank Greenberg paced the Texas League with 39 round-trippers in 1932, before becoming one of the American League's premier sluggers. In 1938, he led the majors with 58 dingers while leading the American League in 1935 and 1940 with 36 and 41 home runs, respectively. Gorman Thomas led the American League in homers in 1979 (45) and 1982 (39) after leading the Texas League with 26 long flys in 1972. Al Rosen drove home 141 to lead the loop in 1947. In 1952 he led the American League with 105, then led the majors with 145 in 1953.
